The Terress—At the general meeting of Wheeling Turners held at Turner Hall, Wednosday, night, a number of important questions of a religious and political nature were discussed. The questions, twenty-three in number, submitted by the American Turner Bund to all the Turner Societies throughout the country, were considered at length, and sinally rejected. These questions are purely of a political and religious character, and have for their object the obtaining of the views of the subording Turnverein voted against mixing in religion, or politics, preferring to devota their filling and politics and the platform of the American Turner Bund. As we have already indicated, the Wheeling Turnverein voted against mixing in receipt of a long communication from Mr. The series of the subording Turnverein voted against mixing in religious of politics, preferring to devote their billion. As we have already indicated, the Wheeling Turnversin voted against mixing in religion or politics, preferring to devoto their attention exclusively to physical culture and training. The decision was a wise one, and will be heartily endorsed by all friends of the Society.

Severa Accident—Mr. Frank Bowers, of South Wheeling, was riding homeward vesterday morning, from the upper portion of the city, and when near the Sixth Ward school building his horse stumbled and fell, throwing him to the ground and trampling upon him, severely injuring him about the breast and shoulders. The animal, in falling, cut both knees badly, of the Wheeling Buttehrs' Association. His injuries, we are glad to say, do not appear to be of a serious nature.
